UCLA CART
CENTER FOR AUTISM RESEARCH AND TREATMENT

Distinguished Lecture Series

The UCLA CART Autism Affinity Group Distinguished Lecture Series presents:

CARLA MAZEFSKY, PHD

Associate Professor
University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine

Dr. Mazefsky will be giving 2 talks during her virtual visit! See below for each talk's intended audience.

Nov. 5, 2020 12 – 1:30PM PST This is a CAN REACH Training Lecture and is geared towards parents, caregivers, families, friends, and self-advocates. SCAN to Register	EMOTION REGULATION ACROSS THE AUTISM SPECTRUM: WHY IT MATTERS AND HOW TO HELP Register for the virtual lecture: https://tinyurl.com/y46cemrj Contact: canreach@mednet.ucla.edu
Nov. 6, 2020 9 – 10:30AM PST This is a CART Distinguished Lecture and is geared towards faculty, staff, trainees, professionals, but all are welcome.* We are offering CEUs to PhDs and PsyDs. Contact us for more information!* SCAN to Register	EMOTION DYSREGULATION ACROSS THE AUTISM SPECTRUM: NEW APPROACHES TO ASSESSMENT AND TREATMENT Register for the virtual lecture: https://tinyurl.com/y5kpu4rp Contact: canreach@mednet.ucla.edu

Sponsored by:

TARJAN CENTER AT UCLA · UCLA IDDRC · Brain Research Institute, University of California, Los Angeles · UCLA CAN REACH TRAINING PROGRAM