

INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF THE NEUROSCIENCES

WASHINGTON, DC • JUNE 1 - 6, 2015

June 1 - 6, 2015

The International Society for the History of the Neurosciences, in collaboration with The George Washington University, School of Medicine and Health and Sciences, is hosting its 20th annual meeting in Washington, DC.

You have an opportunity to be part of this major event by presenting your work and sharing your knowledge with the experts in the field of history of the neurosciences.

The proposals for symposia, presentations, or posters are welcome at this time. Click here for more information.

Meeting Overview

Sponsored by the Department of Neurology and the Department of History, the goal of this meeting is to promote research and education in the history of neurosciences. Experts from around the world will deliver lectures and present posters on the history of the most important neurological disorders including epilepsy, dementia, stroke, and movement disorders. Emphasis will also be given to the history and future of drug development.

The registration information is coming soon.
