Do you have a child with Autism Spectrum Disorder?

- Is your child between 5 and 11 years old?

- If so, then you and your child may be eligible to participate in a UCLA research study using EEG recordings to understand language development.

Eligible participants receive:

- Reports from behavioral testing

Participation involves:

- EEG recordings of brain activity
- Questionnaires, interviews & behavioral measures

Please Contact us for more information

(310) 825-0180  Jestelab@mednet.ucla.edu