Brain Wave Study of Autism Spectrum Disorders

Purpose of study: To examine brain wave patterns in people with high-functioning autism.

Eligibility:
- Age: 15 to 20 years old
- Must meet eligibility requirements for having an Autism Spectrum Disorder

Participation Involves:
- Behavioral questionnaires
- Two MRI brain scans and two EEGs
- A single dose of medication
- One visit to UCLA lasting about 6 hours

Compensation for Time:
- Up to $180 per participant

For more information, please contact:
RQLY@mednet.ucla.edu / 310-206-9012