Do You Have Memory Problems?

HEALTHY VOLUNTEERS AGES 60-89 NEEDED!

UCLA researchers are seeking volunteers with memory problems or Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI) to study the relationship between physical activity, memory function and brain structure.

VOLUNTEERS MUST BE:
- In Good Health
- MRI Eligible: Not having metal or medically implanted devices in the body
- With NONE of the following:
  - Cerebrovascular Disease
  - Neurodegenerative Disease or Alzheimer’s
  - Major Psychiatric Conditions
  - Diabetes
  - Uncontrolled Hypertension

This Study Involves:
- Wearing ankle monitors for 1 week every 6 months
- Blood Draw and EKG
- 2 Memory Assessments
- 2 MRIs

Only 5 Visits to UCLA Over 18 Months

Compensation for Participation
For more information call: 310-206-7392

Research study conducted by David Merrill, M.D., Ph.D. from the UCLA Dept. of Psychiatry