UCLA researchers are conducting a brain imaging project focused on detecting early signs of Alzheimer’s disease in Down Syndrome Adults Aged 40 and Older.

VOLUNTEERS MUST BE:
- In Good Health
- With No History of: Cerebrovascular Disease, Diabetes, or Cancer
- With No Uncontrolled Hypertension

This Study Involves:
- 1 Clinical Evaluation
- 1 Memory Assessment
- Brain Imaging:
  - PET Scans
  - CT or MRI

Compensation for Participation
For more information call:
310-206-7392

Only 2–3 visits to UCLA Required

Research study conducted by Gary Small, M.D.
UCLA Department of Psychiatry