MILITARY SERVICE:

1971-73--U.S. Air Force (Honorable Discharge, August 1973)--Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Residency education and medical student teaching (University of Texas at San Antonio) were major parts of the assignment. I taught courses in Affective Disorders (16 weeks); Schizophrenia (16 weeks); Ego psychology (16 weeks); Psychopharmacology (coordinated a three month course of weekly presentations)

Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychiatry, University of Texas Medical School, San Antonio, 1971-1973.

CURRENT PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES:(A) UCLA MEDICAL SCHOOL

I am currently Clinical Professor in the Department of Psychiatry, UCLA Medical School.

From August 1973 to September 1994, in addition to my office practice, I held a part-time teaching position at UCLA as founder and director of a family-oriented psychiatric unit that served as a major focus for psychoanalytic teaching at UCLA, as well as for my clinical investigations and publications.

My UCLA academic appointment was full time from 1973-1976 and 7/8 time until 1994:

1973-1976 - Assistant Professor in Residence

1976-1979 - Adjunct Assistant Professor

1979-1985 - Adjunct Associate Professor

1985-1994 - Adjunct Professor

1994- - Clinical Professor

Recent teaching: Beyond DSM IV patient interviews from a psychodynamic point of view. (yearly).
