

Tarjan Center Lecture Series presents:

Training ASD Providers in Evidence-Based Interventions in a Virtual Era

Kelsey Oliver Kerrigan
Ph.D., BCBA

Postdoctoral Fellow
UC Davis MIND Institute

Monday May 17, 2021
11:30AM – 12:30PM, PST
(via Zoom)

Learning Objectives:

1. To understand coaching strategies for training providers to implement evidence-based interventions (EBI) for autism in educational settings.
2. To understand the process and outcomes of providing a hybrid model of EBI training that includes e-coaching
3. To understand further adaptations made to e-coaching and virtual EBI implementation in response to COVID-19.

All are welcome! Registration is required.

Please use this link to register:

https://uclahs.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_BVvYo6gGRBeB4ocETiwkYg

Closed captioning provided.

For more information or to request a disability accommodation, contact:

cnmartinez@mednet.ucla.edu

<https://www.semel.ucla.edu/tarjan/lecture-series>

Sponsored by:

UCLA IDDRRC