

Tarjan Center Lecture Series presents:

Comprehensive and Systemic Sexuality and Relationship Education for Young Adults with Autism

Rebecca Kammes, Ph.D., LMFT

*Postdoctoral Fellow
UCLA PEERS Clinic*

Monday November 22, 2021
11:30AM – 12:30PM, PST
(via Zoom)

Learning Objectives:

1. Gain an understanding of the importance of sexuality and relationship education for young adults with autism.
2. Identify what comprehensive sexuality education looks like and how it's been implemented.
3. Understand the importance of working systemically with young adults.

All are welcome! Registration is required.

Please use this link to register:

https://uclahs.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_UFOIW1nMQL-0DQP5sQ7SKA

Closed captioning provided.

For more information or to request a disability accommodation, contact:

bstoffmacher@mednet.ucla.edu

<https://www.semel.ucla.edu/tarjan/lecture-series>

Sponsored by:

UCLA IDDRC