

AUTISM DIAGNOSTIC PROCESS WITH A BILINGUAL, LOW-INCOME LATINX COMMUNITY: BARRIERS FAMILIES EXPERIENCE AND WHAT PROVIDERS CAN DO TO HELP

Monday, April 8, 2024

11:30am - 12:30pm PDT

Free and live on Zoom!

Register

Real-time live captions
Spanish interpretation

Learning Objectives

- Identify barriers that bilingual, low-income Latinx families in the greater Los Angeles area experience related to early diagnosis and service acquisition
- Strategies that providers can use to support access to early diagnosis and treatment

Nurit Benrey, PhD
Postdoctoral Fellow,
UCLA Semel Institute
for Neuroscience and Human Behavior

Nicole Rosen, MA
Graduate Researcher,
UCLA Semel Institute
for Neuroscience and Human Behavior

Maira Tafolla, MA
Graduate Researcher,
UCLA Semel Institute
for Neuroscience and Human Behavior

For recorded lectures, please visit:
www.semel.ucla.edu/tarjan/lecture-series

For information, please contact:
BStoffmacher@mednet.ucla.edu